MAY 15. 1740. NUMB. 596.

The Pennsylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestick.

To the Author of the Letter in the last Pennsylvania Gazette.

SIR,

ON my first hearing of the Outcry that was raised against the Paragraph, that related to the shutting up of the Concert Room, &c. I immediately called for the Gazette; but, tho' I read the Article over and over with the greatest Attention, I was not able to discover in it the least injurious Reflection on the Characters of the Gentlemen concerned. My ill Success, I then attributed to my Stupidity, and concluded that the Abuse, tho' I could not see it, must nevertheless be very perspicuous to the BETTER SORT, otherwise, they would not have made so loud a Complaint against it, as it is publickly known they did, since it was in the publick Street.

I comforted myself with the Hopes, that, on the Appearance of your Letter, the Mist would have been dispelled from my Eyes. But, I can't help declaring, that, notwithstanding all the Assistance you have furnished me with, the Injury complained of, still remains to me as great a Secret as ever.

You tell us the Paragraph manifestly carries in it an Insinuation, that the Persons concerned in the Concert declin'd meeting, as thinking it inconsistent with the Doctrine of the Christian Religion. But, with submission, I think the Paragraph manifestly insinuates the quite contrary. It mentions, that the Gentlemen concerned in the Concert, &c. caused the Door to be broke open, which was the strongest Evidence that could be given of their Dislike to the Principles on which it had been shut up. Therefore, tho' it immediately follows, that no Company came the last Assembly Night, it was most unnatural to suppose they should so suddenly have changed their Sentiments, and declined their Diversions on any religious Consideration.

Let us admit for Argument's Sake (which, otherwise, can by no Means be admitted) that the Words are guilty of the Insinuation, which you are so fond it should be thought they are. Yet, how does it appear that the Characters of the Gentlemen are injured by it? You tell us, They think so. But, is that a Reason to induce Us to believe it is really so? Since you have appealed to the Mob as Judges of this IMPORTANT Controversy, I must inform you, that the Assertion (and much less, the Belief) of any Man, never passes for Argument at Our impartial Tribunal. For my own Part (I speak with an humble Deference to the rest of my Brethren) I cannot conceive how any Person's Reputation can be prejudiced, tho' it should be reported, that he has left off making of Legs, or cutting of Capers.

Perhaps you will object, that it is not the Fact, but the Motive, which is controverted; That you admit the Company did not meet; but deny, they declined meeting, for the Reason, which, as you pretend, is insinuated in the Gazette. If this be the true State of the Question, we unanimously pronounce the Accusation to be groundless. In Matters of such a Nature, no Man can judge of your Thoughts but yourself: Therefore, your Denial of the Charge was a sufficient, and indeed the only proper Defence you could make.

But you were not contented to stop here, but must needs tell us incoherent Stories of Mr. Whitefield and Mr. Seward, and, under Pretence of a Vindication, foist into the News-Paper Invectives against those two Gentlemen. You might with equal Propriety have entertained Us with the History of Romulus and Remus, and entituled it "an Argument to prove, that you did not think Dancing, or idle Capering an unchristian Diversion.

I hope, Sir, from what I have said, you are now convinced, that you have brought before Us a most ridiculous Complaint against an imaginary Abuse, and consequently you have been all this Time doing nothing more than beating the Air, and fighting without an Adversary.

In the next Place, I am to reprimand you, Sir, for your disrespectful Behaviour to Us, whom you had chosen for your Judges. We take Notice, that you have ranked yourself under the Denomination of the BETTER SORT of People, which is an Expression always made use of in Contradistinction to the meaner Sort, i. e. the Mob, or the Rabble. Tho' We are not displeased with such Appellations when bestowed on Us by our Friends, yet We have ever regarded them as Terms of outrageous Reproach, when applied to Us by our Enemies; for in this (and so it is in many other Cases) the Words are to receive their Construction from the known Mind of the Speaker: Your Demosthenes' and Ciceroes, your Sidneys and Trenchards never approached Us but with Reverence: The High and Mighty Mob, The Majesty of the Rabble, The Honour and Dignity of the Populace, Or such like Terms of Respect, were frequent in their Orations; and what a high Opinion they entertained of the Accuracy of Our Judgment, appears from those elaborate Compositions they addressed to Us.

They never took upon them to make a Difference of Persons, but as they were distinguished by their Virtues or their Vices. But now our present Scribblers expect our Applause for reviling us to our Faces. They consider us as a stupid Herd, in whom the Light of Reason is extinguished. Hence every impertinent Babler thinks himself qualified to harangue us, without Style, Argument or Justness of Sentiment. Your gross Deficiency in the two latter Particulars I have already given Instances of; and as to your Skill in Language you have furnished Us with the following notable Example: You affirm That Mr. Whitefield's Tenets are mischievous: Therefore, on that Supposition, it is impossible they should be contemptible; yet, with the same ſame Breath you aſſure Us, that you have them in the utmoſt Contempt. This is the merrieſt Gibberiſh I ever met with. Surely, you have not publiſhed it as a Sample of the Stile of thoſe polite Folks, who by their own Authority, "contrary to Law and Juſtice, without any previous Application to "or Conſent firſt had" of their Fellow-Citizens, have uſurped the Title of the BETTER SORT.

Under theſe gentle Reprehenſions We now diſmiſs you, hoping you will make a proper Uſe of them, when you ſhall judge it convenient to appeal to Us again.

I am, On Behalf of myſelf and the Reſt of my Brethren of the Meaner Sort, Yours, &c.
OBADIAH PLAINMAN.

Charleſtown, South-Carolina, April 1. 1740.

WHEREAS upon mature Deliberation, it is reſolved to defend theſe Provinces, by invading the Province of Florida, and attacking St. Auguſtine, in order to remove the Enemy, that from thence may moleſt His Majeſty's Subjects in America; which Enemy both have, and do continue to foment and countenance the Slaves in Rebellion, burning of Houſes, Murders, and other Cruelties, of the Succeſs of whoſe Proclamations, the late Maſſacre in this Province has been too ſad a Proof. AND WHEREAS the General Aſſembly of this Province hath order'd Forces to be raiſed, ſo that an Army compos'd of various Troops and Indians are to aſſiſt in invading the Spaniſh Dominions of Florida. I therefore, to prevent any Diſorders that may ariſe in the ſaid Army, by Virtue of Powers received from his Majeſty, authorizing and impowering me (for the better Government of the Forces during their Continuance under my Command) to prepare and publiſh ſuch Rules and Ordinances, as are fit to be obſerved by all Officers and Soldiers: In Regard therefore to the Regiment of Foot raiſed in South-Carolina, I do conſtitute and appoint, that Alexander Vander Duſſen, Eſq; Colonel of the ſaid Regiment paid by the Government of South-Carolina, ſhall hold Regimental Courts Martial, for the Trials of ſuch Offences as ſhall be committed by the Officers and Soldiers of that Regiment; and that the ſaid Courts Martial ſhall conſiſt of the Officers of that Regiment only, and that the Colonel of the ſaid Regiments ſhall ſit as Preſident of the ſaid Regimental Courts Martial, & make a Report to me; and that according to the Judgment of the ſaid Courts, I ſhall cauſe Sentence to be pronounced in Caſe I approve of the ſame; or otherwiſe ſuſpend the ſame, as I ſhall ſee Cauſe. And I do further declare, that this Authority ſhall continue for the ſpace of four Months, from the Commencement of the ſaid Expedition, and no longer; and after the Expiration of the ſaid four Months, or other ſooner Determination of the ſaid Expedition, every Officer and Soldier, whether Voluntiers from, or in Pay of the Government of Carolina, ſhall have free Liberty to depart, and return to their ſeveral Habitations; and that a free Paſs (if by them required) ſhall be reſpectively granted unto them againſt being impreſs'd, impeded, inliſted or detained by any Authority, Civil or Military whatſoever, that may be exerciſed by, or derived from me.

And I do further declare, that all Negroes which have deſerted from South-Carolina, and which ſhall be taken in Florida, during the ſaid Expedition, ſhall be delivered up to their reſpective Owners, on paying the Sum of Five Pounds Sterling per Head to the Captors.

And I further declare, that if the Officers of his Majeſty's Ships of War, ſhall land Men to aſſiſt the Land Forces in any Land Service, one full Moiety of all the Plunder that ſhall be taken in ſuch Service, ſhall go to the Officers and Men in his Majeſty's ſaid Sea Service, whoſe Ships are aſſiſting in the ſaid Expedition; and that all Plunder taken and accruing to the Officers and Men in the Land Service, ſhall be divided among the Officers and Men of the Land Service, in the ſame Manner and Proportion as Prizes are diſtributed among the Officers and Men in his Majeſty's Sea Service, according to the Laws and Rules of his Majeſty's Navy. And I do further declare, that whatever Share of Plunder ſhall come to me, as General and Commander of the ſaid Forces, I will apply the ſame totally towards the Relief of ſuch Men as may happen to be maimed or wounded in the ſaid Expedition, and towards aſſiſting the Widows and Children of any of the ſaid Forces, that may happen to be killed in the ſaid Service, and for rewarding ſuch as ſhall perform any diſtinguiſhed brave Action. No Indian Enemy is to be taken as a Slave, for all Spaniſh and Indian Priſoners do belong to his Majeſty, and are to be treated as Priſoners, and not as Slaves.

JAMES OGLETHORPE.

By His Excellency's Command.
Francis Moore.

By Capt. VINCENT PEARSE, Commander of his Majeſty's Ship the Flamborough.

WHEREAS the Government of South-Carolina has reſolved to raiſe a Number of Men to aſſiſt General Oglethorpe, in the taking of St. Auguſtine, with the Aſſiſtance of his Majeſty's Ships of War, and as I am willing to give all due Encouragement to an Undertaking ſo much for the Service of his Majeſty, and the Welfare and Security of this Province.

I do hereby give publick Notice to all Sailors that have at any time belong'd to any of his Majeſty's Ships of War now here, and have any Wages due for their Service on board the ſame, that if they will return forthwith, in order to proceed in this Expedition, they ſhall have their Wages without any blame, otherwiſe they may expect to meet with the Severity which the Law directs for Deſertion; but if they will readily inliſt and proceed in ſome of the Companies of Land Forces, who are to be tranſported thither in Ships or other Veſſels, they ſhall have the ſame Encouragement.

Given under my Hand, this 1ſt Day of April 1740.
VINC. PEARSE.

BOSTON, May 5.

We hear from Newport, that Capt. Allen their Privateer, in Company with a Jamaica Privateer, had taken about 50 Ton of Gun Powder, going from Curracoa to Carthagena, for the Spaniſh Admiral.

By a Letter from Lisbon, to a Gentlemen in this Town, dated March 22. N. S. we have Advices, That Capt. Clealand, in one of His Majeſty's Ships of War, had taken two Spaniſh Privateers cruizing off of Oporto, and ſunk two others.

On Thurday laſt arrived here Capt. Lathrop from Jamaica, which Place he left on the 3d of April laſt, who informs us, that three Days before he ſail'd, Capt Burn arriv'd there from Rail De Hatch, a Place on the Spaniſh Coaſt, with Advice, that Admiral Vernon with his Squadron conſiſting of 10 Sail of Men of War, 2 fire Ships and 2 Bomb Veſſels was arriv'd before Carthagena, that he had ſent his Bomb Ships at the back of the Town, and that they had thrown 300 Bombs into the Town in one Night, which had deſtroy'd two or three Churches beſides a great Number of Houſes, and kill'd ſeveral Hundred of the Inhabitants; that he intended to atack their Forts upon the Arrival of the Burford and Hampton Court, two 70 Gun Ships, which the Admiral daily expected from Jamaica, and which ſail'd before Capt. Lathrop left that Place; that there were ſix ſail of Spaniſh Men of War at Carthagena Carthagena under the Command of Admiral Don Blaſs; Who no doubt will drink a Glaſs of Wine with Admiral Vernon ſooner than he epected, when he ſent him that Compliment.

That the Greenwich Man of War had drove a Spaniſh Privateer on Shore upon the Rocks near St Jago, aud it was ſuppos'd all her Hands periſhed; ſaid Privateer had juſt taken a Snow bound from Jamaica to London, which the Man of War retook.

NEW-YORK, May 5.

Captain Cunningham, a Jamaica Privateer, writes to his Correſpondent here, that he was Sharing 10,000*l.* Jamaica Money, and would ſoon ſail on another Cruize, after which he intended for this place.

Captain Bayard of this Place, and the Ship his Prize, are daily expected here; and we are buſy fitting out two more Privateers, and they talk of a third. The Privateer mentioned in our laſt, with whom Luſh engag'd, was ſent out to engage Captain Cunningham, and had on Board ſeveral pickt men out of the Fleet commanded by Don Blaſs; and at the Time of the Engagement, Luſh had in his Sloop and in the Prizes about 100 Spaniſh Priſoners, and but 35 Men on Deck; notwithſtanding which, after an Engagement of about 3 Hours, the Spaniard gave over and was glad to get away.

Among the Cargo of Luſhes Prizes there are 350 Saroons of Cocoa, and 19 good ſerviceable Negroes.

Capt. Bedford, who arrived from Georgia laſt Wedneſday, informs us, that as Capt. Peter Warren was Cruizing off St. Auguſtine Bar, he met with two Spaniſh Sloops and ſix Launces full of Men, ſtanding in for the Bar, which he endeavoured to prevent, on which a ſmart Engagement enſued; howeverCapt. Warren ſucceeded, for he diſappointed the Spaniards Landing at St. Auguſtine.
